Where were you in the beginning, when the stars in heaven were made?

Where were you? When God balanced the galaxies, and the universe was laid?

Where were you? Where were you when the stars began to shine?
gan to shine, and the morning stars sang together to glorify God's great design?

At the dawn of creation, God formed His wonderful plan To include His vast universe